IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

THE WEDDINGS, TEAS AND DEBUT PARTIES TODAY.

Marriage of Miss Eversman and Mr. Curley—Other Events.

Personals.

The President, who had accompanied Mrs. Taft to the theater last night, went later with members of the cabinet, diplomatic corps and resident and official society generally to the reception given by Miss Mabel Boardman at her father's home in honor of the officers and members of the National Red Cross.

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Chew, daughter of Mr. John Chew, and Mr. Thomas Roberts, Jr., of Philadelphia will take place late this afternoon at the residence of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Titian J. Coffey, and will be attended by their relatives. A large reception will follow.

The bride's sister, Mrs. John Upshur Moorhead, will be the only attendant. Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, D. D., will officiate, and will be assisted by the uncle of the bridegroom, Rev. Dewees Roberts of Boston.

The charming bride is to wear a superb dress of ivory satin and duchess lace, a full veil edged with point lace, caught with orange blossoms. She will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Moorhead will wear pink satin veiled in blue chiffon, and will carry pink roses. The house has been decorated with lilies and white roses, and its gracious mistress will receive her guests elegantly dressed in black lace over satin.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Blinn, Mr. Thomas Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Reath, all of Philadelphia. Rev. and Mrs. Dewees Roberts of Boston are also here.

The couple will go south for their honeymoon, and will live at the Aldine in Philadelphia during the winter months. The bride has received over 200 splendid gifts.

The debut tea of Miss Dorothy Gray Brooks, daughter of Mrs. Edward C. Brooks, will be a pleasurable event of this afternoon at the family residence on 17th street.

Mrs. and Miss Brooks will be assisted by Mrs. Leonard Wood, Mrs. Russell Harrison, Mrs. Herbert L. Wigmore, Miss Elizabeth Noyes, Miss Emily Beatty, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Miss Estelle Crane, Miss Elizabeth Mumford, Miss Nina Stockton, Miss Lemira Gillett Hill, Miss Ellen D. Pillsbury, Miss Amy Nicholson, Miss Helen Keen and Miss Natalie Driggs.

A supper for the receiving party, to which a number of young men have also been asked, will follow the tea.

Representative and Mrs. Edwin F. Sweet and their daughter, Miss Sophie Sweet of Grand Rapids, Mich., are established for the winter at the Hotel Marlborough, where they will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Pearson, which they have leased for the season.

Miss Mary Kennedy Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Worden Graham, will be presented at a tea this afternoon. Mrs. Graham will have in her receiving party Misses Annette Payne, Mildred Needham, Surguy, Moody and Towson.

Miss Adelaide Heath will entertain young people today at a tea to meet Miss Margaret Draper and Miss Martha Bowers. Miss Dora Clover will assist the young hostess.

Miss Kauffmann entertained at luncheon at Abille today in compliment to Mrs. Randolph Max Kauffmann.

Mrs. Murray Crane will not receive on Thursdays until after the first of January.

Mrs. Pinchot entertained at dinner last night the German ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff, the secretary of the State, and Mr. Meyer, the minister of Holland. Mr. Louden, the minister of Denmark, Count Alnoy, the secretary of the State, and Mr. Henry White and Lady Johnstone.

ment of pearls on chiffon. The court train falling from the empire waist line was caught here and there with sprays of orange blossoms and was cut square at the end.

She wore a long tulle veil arranged close to the hair with a tiny spray of orange blossoms at each side, and her ornaments were a harvest moon of pearls, the gift of her mother, and a pendant of diamonds, the gift of the bridegroom. A bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids was carried.

Miss Alice Eversman, the bride's sister, who is a prima donna in the Chicago Opera Company, was the maid of honor. Her gown was of pale blue brocade, the waist made of silver lace veiled in pale blue chiffon and handsomely trimmed with silver embroidery.

Her bouquet was of lilies of the valley and violets and she wore a crystal and silver chignon hair ornament. The bridemaids were Miss Loretta Curley of Pittsfield, Mass., sister of the groom; Miss Gertrude Whyte, Miss May Kearney and Miss Marguerite Toole.

They wore gowns of ivory satin with long square trains and tunic of white marquisette edged with crystal banding, the gift of their mother, and a pendant of diamonds, the gift of the bridegroom. A bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids was carried.

The bride's sister, Mrs. John Upshur Moorhead, will be the only attendant. Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, D. D., will officiate, and will be assisted by the uncle of the bridegroom, Rev. Dewees Roberts of Boston.

SOCIALISTS SHOW STRENGTH.

Elect City Attorney and Two Councilmen at Bremerton, Wash.
BREMERTON, Wash., December 6.—The socialists elected two councilmen in yesterday's election. The citizens' independent ticket elected the mayor, treasurer, clerk and two councilmen.
State Senator J. W. Bryan, who ran independently for city attorney, polled most of the socialist strength and was elected by 100 majority, the largest received by any candidate.
Bremerton voted three to one in favor of consolidating with Charleston, but the latter rejected the merger. Consolidation of the many yard towns was favored by President Taft when he spoke at Puget sound navy yard in October.

Auto Ablaze, Damage, $300.
Gasoline in an automobile owned by John Davis of 1333 I street northwest exploded last evening while the machine was in the rear of his home and resulted in a fire which damaged the machine to the extent of about $300. No engine company extinguished the flames.

Wrinkles Vanish
When This Is Used
"The hand of Time will touch lightly the cheek that craves powders or cosmetics," says Mrs. Mac Martyn, authority on beauty, in the Sacramento Post, "and uses instead a simple lotion made by stirring 2 teaspoonfuls glycerin in 4 1/2 pint hot water, then adding 4 ounce spermaceti. Many, however, prefer witch-hazel to water, as with the former it dries more quickly."
After a few times using, wrinkles and fine lines vanish, the oily, yellow or "muddy" color disappears, and pimples and blackheads are eliminated. The value of this lotion over the face powder which multiplies itself, as it is inevitable when used, is that it does not clog or rub off.
